Outline Bi-State Problems; Urge Greater Harmony

A tentative outline for developing a high level of communication and cooperation among organizations and officials groups concerned with bi-state area problems was unanimously adopted Tuesday night at a meeting of Illinois subcommittee members of the Illinois-Missouri Pilot Committee on Metropolitan Area Development.

The subcommittee, representing Madison, St. Clair and Monroe counties, concurred with its Missouri counterpart in a general breakdown of problem categories and also provided for a public education program aimed at bringing about more harmonious relations between both sides of the river.

Under this last proposal, it will be the responsibility of all 22 Pilot Committee members, 11 from each state, to encourage better cooperation. The Pilot Committee, at the request of a bi-state sponsoring group, was named last fall by the presidents of Washington University, St. Louis University and Southern Illinois University.

Problem categories listed during Tuesday night's meeting included transportation, sanitation, parks and recreation and economic development. Utilization of existing organizations, such as planning agencies, official bodies and neighborhood groups, together with encouragement of similar units where none do not exist now, were cited by the subcommittee as valuable in developing improved communication and coordination.

Coordinate, Expand Efforts "With the assistance of experienced university personnel, will be possible to inventory these organizations on both sides of the river, plan areas of western Illinois, determine the needs and, in general, stimulate action programs that can lead to greater metropolitan area development," C. E. Townsend, vice-chairman of the Pilot Committee, said.

It was further brought out that an exchange of information between groups concerned about similar problems, whether in Illinois or Missouri or both, shows specific results, as well as arouse increased public interest in the problems.

Schools Acting To Cut Utility Service Costs

Efforts are being made to reduce consumption of electric power in Granite City schools, and some rate adjustments have been obtained, Superintendent M. Kaiser reported to the school board Tuesday night.

With installations at new grade schools now in effect long enough to establish proper rate classifications, the district will receive credit for $382 on previous billings, Dr. Kaiser said. This includes $181 at the Wilson avenue school, $118 at the Maryville road school and $82 at the East 23rd street school.

In addition to a reduction in overall consumption, the district plans to maintain a lower maximum demand, thus reducing the point at which power rates change.

No Water Pipe Leaks
A survey of water consumption and rates has shown no leaks in yard piping but some long or indirect drains and other factors contributing to unnecessary water usage.

Some water flow adjustments are being made, and a study being made of the feasibility of shutting off water except when school buildings are being used.

The district approved payment of $400 to the park district for use of the Lincoln Plaza recreation center during the month of December. The center has not been used since the new East 23rd street grade school was placed in use.

Bills paid totaled $15,830 from the education fund, $3227 building fund, $12,141 transportation fund, $21,053 new construction fund, $14,862 federal construction fund and $3946 federal federal construction fund.

Openings of Bids
Bids were opened on lighting fixtures, printing of bus passes for 1960-61 and supplying of a drying agent for use in school cafeterias. The bids will be tabulated preparatory to action at the Feb. 23 board meeting.

The bid specifications provided for major orders at the start and middle of the school year, with smaller orders from time to time. The suppliers are responsible for storage.

Schools Emptied, Searched After Telephone Threat

The Federal Bureau of Investigation's Belleville office has been notified of a telephone bomb threat which resulted in Madison high school being evacuated from 8:40 a.m. to 10:30 a.m. Tuesday and the Madison junior high school being cleared of students from 9 to 10:30 a.m. that day.

The call was received at 7:30 a.m. Tuesday by Madison police, who related that it was a male voice, apparently an elderly man. The man hung up after saying that a bomb would explode at 9:30 a.m. at Madison high school. The warning proved to be a hoax, as have similar calls in Alton recently.

Police, firemen and school officials began inspecting the high school building at 7:40 a.m., and the Engineer Depot bomb disposal detachment was summoned at 8:20 a.m. at the request of Assistant Fire Chief John Bellotti, who is Madison school board president.

Police began searching Madison junior high school, which is the former high school building, at 8:40 and the bomb disposal group also checked that building. Everyone was out of both buildings as the specified time arrived and passed.

Nothing out of order was found at either school, police said. The junior high was locked from 11 p.m. to 6 a.m., and custodians were on duty at the high school all Monday night and Tuesday morning.

GC School Board Secretary Declines Salary For Year

The Granite City school board Tuesday night accepted Board Secretary Robert Edmonds' decision to waive pay for the secretary position.

The secretary's salary has been $20 a month or $240 a year while Edmonds has been secretary of the board. In some previous years, was substantially higher.

The $240 payment for the 1959-60 fiscal year normally would be received at the end of March, and Edmonds told the board Tuesday night that he wants to waive the payment.

The board also went on record as being willing to accept an improvement project tentatively proposed by the Granite City Rotary club. The club had indicated it would like to purchase a major item of equipment for the high school auditorium if the board had no objection.

Secretary Edmonds announced that he will begin accepting petitions for the April 9 board election at 7 a.m. Wednesday, Feb. 24. He will remain at the board office from 7 a.m. to 8 a.m. that day, after which the staff there will accept petitions. The secretary also will be at the board office at the close of filing March 19.

Precincts and election judges and clerks are to be discussed at the Feb. 23 board meeting.

Registration Centers In another election matter, the board authorized Miss Eulalia Hotz, county clerk, to use Nidringhaus grade school and the Wilson avenue grade school as voter registration centers.

Permission was granted for the high school gymnasium to be used for the Feb. 24 civic achievement award dinner honoring the United Steelworkers of America and Granite City Steel Co. It was noted that from 700 to 1000 persons may attend the event, and that no other school facilities would be large enough.

The gymnasium will be made available for banquet preparations throughout the day. Physical education classes meeting in the auditorium that day. Receiving a report that the local ministerial association wants to use the high school auditorium on Sunday, May 4, Supt. Harold M. Kaiser said the facilities are available.

Questions Cafeteria Age Rule Board President Homer Huber asked the board to reconsider its present age limit of 55 on the employment of new cafeteria employees. He said many widows have difficulty obtaining employment when they are between 55 and 62, the earliest age at which social security payments can be received.

Huber also said the 55 age limit may be excluding widows from employment, because many women do not become widows until they are older than 55. He added that physical fitness should still be considered in reviewing applications. Board Member Robert Spengler asked Dr. Kaiser to determine whether a woman recently widowed has applied for cafeteria work.

The board approved employment of Mrs. Alpha Ashlock, 3207 Franklin avenue, 214 Palmer avenue, as four-hour-a-day employee in the Coolidge Junior high school cafeteria. Both are married.

Responsibility of teachers and principals in supervising school children was reviewed, and the possibility of including this topic in the next teacher contract talks was discussed.

Study Accident Insurance The board reviewed students' accident insurance coverage and asked the administrative staff to discuss this with businesses located near Webster grade school. An opinion obtained from the insurance firm indicated that students probably would be covered in the event of claims related to sports at business before or after school, providing that there was no delay in their progress to or from school. The same opinion held that claims would not be paid if there were accidents off the school grounds during the lunch period.

Permission was granted for Lawrence McCauley, high school principal, to attend a pre-conference session in Pewaukee, Wis., and an annual conference of the North Central Association of Secondary Schools in Chicago March 26-30.

Official notice was received from the county superintendent that the state has certified the Granite City school district's 1959-60 state aid claim as based on an assessed valuation of $1,331,604.

The total aid claim, as revised after court rulings on the assessment, is $1,331,604.

Monthly payments from February through July will be $110,907, and payments after July will be based on the claim amendment to be filed in June. The amendment will change the estimate to the actual 1959-60 average daily attendance.

The board and administrators toured the new East 23rd street grade school after Tuesday's meeting.

Kiwanis Hear History Of Skin And Scuba Diving

The history of skin diving and the modern Scuba diving was traced for members of the Granite City Kiwanis Club by A. J. Mueller Jr. during the club's dinner meeting Monday at the Elks Club.

Mueller and Ronald Homyer, who conducted skin and Scuba diving classes at the local YMCA, also displayed equipment used in the sport and pointed out that with $100 to $150 sufficient equipment could be purchased to last five years.

Tracing the history, Mueller, who is business manager for the Press-Record, said skin diving was first recorded about 3000 B.C. in the Mediterranean Sea and that Roman Legions had skin divers to scuttle ships.

He pointed out that man has always wanted to fly like a bird.

Cold Second Quarter Hurts As East St. Louis Defeats Madison Cage Squad 70-63

A cold second quarter, poor rebounding and fewer free throws shooting and fewer rebounds all contributed to Madison's loss to East St. Louis Tuesday night, 70-63 on the local floor.

The Trojans outscored the winners by three points in all quarters except the second, when the local five ran into a cold streak, making only three of 13 shots and being outscored 20-8. Quarter scores were 18-15, 38-22 and 54-44.

The Trojans outscored the Flyers 22-16 and 19-16 in the final two periods but could never get closer than seven points.

Don Brooks, high-scoring East St. Louis center, was held to his lowest total in several games by the Madison zone defense. He was outscored 24-19 by Madison's ace, Ed Walker. Brooks also was held to only 14 rebounds after averaging close to 20 all year.

His teammates supported him, however, and the Flyers grabbed 11 more missed shots than Madison, 36-25. The offensive rebound margin was 16-6 in favor of the winners.

"Our lack of offensive rebounds was a major factor in the defeat," Charles Mueller, Madison coach, said after the game. "Many times they had a second or third chance to shoot after missing, while we had to make our first shot count."

Madison could make only nine of 23 free throws while East St. Louis connected on 16 of 30. Both teams had 27 fouls. The Trojans shot 47 times for a hot 57% while the Flyers attempted 50 and made 56%.

Other Madison scorers—Griggs 16, Hildegarde 8, Hrysko 7, Smith 4, Gravelle 4.

Collinsville Beats Ailing Braves 52-34

Still hurt by the loss of three ailing players, Collinsville ninth grade was defeated at Collinsville Tuesday, 52-34.

Larry Worthan, Larry Nollan and George Moore sat out the game. The quarter scores were 12-2, 22-13 and 38-24. Collinsville shot a cold 29% and Collinsville hit on 41% of its shots.

Collinsville scorers: Hoffman and Hahn 9, Liernan and Papp 6, Tayan and Boyd 2.

Ten weeks, including the 7 a.m. Saturday round at the Bel-Bola Lanes in Belleville, remain on the 1959-60 Southern Illinois Bowling Proprietors Association Classic League schedule. ## A&P's Guide to Coffee Sizes

(You don't get the best out of coffee unless it fits your pot)

Coffeemakers aren't all alike. One percolator basket has more holes than another, for instance. If your coffee's ground too coarse, you get weak flavor. If your coffee's too fine, you get a bitter brew. That's why A&P supplies special coffee mills and trained coffee personnel. At the moment you buy they fit A&P Coffee to your pot from seven different grinds. Besides this custom-grinding, A&P offers you a choice of three top-quality blends... mild, medium, strong. A&P Coffee is never ground until you buy it. The rich flavor stays sealed in the bean naturally. A&P Coffee is fresh, it fits, it tastes extra good. Enjoy the pleasure of A&P's custom-ground flavor and lower price.

Downtown In St. Louis Speaker

Industrial Growth Seen Here, Cooperation Urged

"Without question, the next big surge of industrial development will take place on this side of the river," Granite City Rotarians were told Tuesday by Arthur E. Wright Jr., executive secretary of Downtown in St. Louis.

The speaker urged full, effective cooperation between Illinois and Missouri communities for their mutual benefit. "All should work to develop better understanding between the two areas. Only if we do, can the area achieve its real potential," he asserted.

Describing the interdependence of all sections of the St. Louis area, Wright said it is imperative for two states to build good relations with a positive approach and work to eliminate antagonism, which "unfortunately has had some basis in fact. It takes time to change people's minds and to correct wrong attitudes," he commented.

Supports Port District

"We are greatly interested in your developments. We are very much in favor of the Tri-City Regional Port District and Illinois industrial development. The Pilot Committee for Metropolitan Development is a very good thing, a very healthy thing."

describing development of this entire area, which has twice the raw materials, natural assets and convenient transportation of the Ruhr Valley. With three All-America City winners in Illinois as well as St. Louis and Des Moines, we could call this an All-America Valley.

"To us, the Bi-State Development Agency is the real key to the future. For the year and a half we have been in existence we have done all we could to have Bi-State operating on a full-time basis. We believe that it has unlimited possibilities, and that its activation will be the greatest single thing that has happened here in this century."

"Anyone who knows what the New York Port Authority has done to build the economy of New York, New Jersey and Connecticut areas realize what can be done by the Bi-State Agency."

Urges Illinois Airport

"We would like to see it establish a major airport capable of handling jets on the Illinois side; a union bus terminal in downtown St. Louis, which would serve more Illinois people than Missouri people; and, ultimately, it should take over the bridges eventually eliminating tolls."

Wright opposed the use of bridges to provide general revenue for the cities of St. Louis, East St. Louis and Venice, and he defended selection of Poplar street for a proposed toll-free bridge, saying that is where motorists want it. He said some Illinois newspapers reflect the view that most Illinois residents favor tolls, which he said he doubts.

Reporting that an $89,000,000 stadium proposed for downtown St. Louis is unique in that it to be financed entirely with private capital and loans, the speaker said both the stadium and the Jefferson National Expansion Memorial with its 600-foot-high arch are scheduled for completion in 1964.

Wright said downtown St. Louis benefits Illinois by providing employment for 35,000 residents of this state, with resultant purchasing power; a market for products manufactured here; an entertainment, shopping and cultural center; a source of skilled labor; and a major league sports center.

Pedestrian Malls

Answering questions after the close of his talk, Wright said St. Louis hopes to have pedestrian malls in 10 to 15 years after tolling bridge tolls; an airport would ease other problems; St. Louis is among the local cities collecting bridge tolls; an airport would attract rather than displace industry; and that the Missouri earnings tax on Illinois residents helps pay for streets, lights, expressways and other services used by them. He had no answer for a contention that the New York Port Authority has found it necessary to maintain bridge tolls to help finance development projects.

Wright was introduced by Ralph E. L. Ackerman, president, and plans were made for the Rotarians to cancel the Feb. 23 meeting, instead attending a local Optimist luncheon at which the Optimist International president will speak.

County Board Preparing To Create Local Justice District This Spring

A proposal for two justices of the peace and two constables to serve the combined Granite City, Venice and Nemoak townships appears to be a logical arrangement. The plan just devised for placing 1959 state laws into effect here next year calls for eight justices and eight constables in Madison county, compared to about 65 of each at present.

As worked out by the county board's legislation committee with circuit judges and other officials, the Quad-Cities, the Alton area and a Wood-River-Chouteau township district would have two justices and two constables each, with single officers for two less-populated districts centered in Edwardsville and Collinsville. The county reduction would be 87%, and the community would have a reduction of 86% in its present unnecessarily-large JP and constable staffs.

The new procedure for electing these officials is a result of the state legislature's action to achieve fairer and more uniform administration of justice by placing JPs and magistrates on salaries rather than the existing fee system. Salaries for justices will be fixed by the county board at not less than $600 and not more than $12,000 a year, and the county will provide office space for hearings. Present officers will complete their current terms, and JPs will remain on town boards until April 1961, when each township other than Granite City and Alton will elect three town auditors to serve with the supervisor and clerk. In cities which have co-extensive township lines, the city council serves as the town board. Magistrates' salaries will be paid by cities.

Reducing Quad-City judicial offices from 19 to six, the new laws will also do much to increase respect for the officers, perhaps attracting more attorneys as magistrate and JP candidates. The county is wise in preparing well in advance for its formal creation of justice districts this spring.

Additional Low-Rent Apartments Will Be Boon For Retired People

Word of a $20,000 federal grant to finance planning of a local housing project for elderly persons is good news. With 97 of its 451 apartments at Kirkpatrick Homes already devoted to the elderly, the Granite City Housing Authority has a backlog of more than 100 applications from retired couples and individuals.

Income limits have barred the low-rent apartments to many working families, but housing projects can fulfill a need by serving first-income groups like the elderly. With such a large waiting list already, the 100 new units will be most welcome.

We know some ruffians whose veneration of civilization is waning thin.

Staff For Counting Noses Will Be Nosier Than Ever In 1960 Census

The census taker is getting more personal all the time; the ancient Romans simply counted noses and property, chiefly for the purpose of taxation.

William the Conqueror compiled more detailed information on who owned what when he decided to divide land among his followers at the expense of the nobility. European cities began to count their population in the 1400s and 1500s, and 300 years later Sweden compiled its first national census based on parish records.

In 1790, the fledgling U. S. government sent out 17 marshals and a few hundred assistants to count the population, providing a basis for testing the states and helping to determine the number of representatives they would have in Congress. The first major invasion of privacy occurred in 1850, when census workers began to write down the names of all the people and classified the population according to age, sex, race and place of birth. Soon the enumerators were asking about occupation, education, income and marital status, and in 1950 they wanted to know about your plumbing.

This year, the census takers will find out whether you are really keeping up with the Joneses. A sample of the population will be asked whether the family owns a washing machine, clothes dryer, food freezer and air conditioner, and how many cars there are in the garage. All individual information is, of course, confidential.

Local Criminals Have Succeeded Only In Robbing Themselves

The moral is obvious, but perhaps it needs to be re-stated: crime does not pay. Some ignore the advice, but sooner or later their law violations are discovered and they are punished.

The trio indicted for robbing a Granite City tavern in January 1958 affords a striking example. One is serving a 75-year prison term as an habitual criminal. Another has started serving a sentence of 10 to 20 years for this case and also may be vulnerable to prosecution as an habitual criminal in view of a more recent charge. The third has just completed a prison term and is to stand trial for the tavern holdup.

Was the prospect of dividing the $6,000 loot worth it? Would not each man have earned five or six times his share if gainfully employed during the two years since the doing of the robbery? Could any amount of money make up for having to spend substantial parts of their lives behind bars? The answers are obvious: no. The puzzle is why so many do not realize that their crimes against society rob themselves just as surely.

History Of Nation Charts Future Course—Freedom Must Be Earned

American History Month, sponsored every February by the Daughters of the American Revolution, is of significance because it calls attention to the historical events that led to establishment of this country's democratic government. America's heritage of heroism and greatness clearly conveys the message that freedom was not easily earned and must not be taken for granted.

As pointed out by the DAR president, Mrs. Ashmead White, "Freedom is not free. To pay our debt to the past and understand our obligations to the future, we must not forget that the freedom which is ours to enjoy and a challenge to keep came about through the sacrifice, wisdom, perseverance and great faith of our forebears. To preserve our freedom, we must understand our heritage and be inspired by it."

Free countries can look on their history and use such singleness of purpose and such adherence to high ideals. Continued sacrifice and perseverance will be necessary, but the way has been charted by the deeds of the past.

AFTERTHOUGHTS

Worry never robs tomorrow of its sorrow. It only saps today of its strength. He who can take advice is sometimes superior to him who can give it. . . . It is the height of art to conceal art. . . . The time to relax is when you don't have time for it. . . . Take a lesson from the whale; the only time he gets harpooned is when he comes up to spout. . . . A successful man keeps looking for work after he has found a job. . . . When in doubt, do the friendliest thing. . . . To stay youthful, stay useful.

FLUORIDATION OPPONENT SPEAKS OUT

Editor, Granite City Press-Record, Sir:

Discretion is often dominated by enthusiasm and enthusiasm easily lends itself to misstatements and unintentional distortion of facts by virtue of common truths with half-truths. So, with cautious reserve and being cognizant of the fallacy of overstatement, I am submitting in response to a recent Forum letter on the subject of water fluoridation.

Unfortunately, after appealing to us to weigh only the facts and warning of the danger of rumor and hearsay, the author condemns her own convictions by the way she states them.

"I heard that the beer makers across the river are opposed to fluoridation," she writes, "constitutes hearsay. In passing I might add that the 'beer makers' should care less whether our water is fluoridated since they are served by a separate water supply."

Rev. Lyle F. Sheen of Geneva, Illinois is going to some extent to say that she "heard that you have knowledge of proof that fluoridation can prevent as much as 90% of dental decay. For you see, he has offered $100,000 reward to anybody who can prove it."

1. That sodium fluoride will prevent tooth decay.

2. That sodium fluoride is not poisonous, even in small amounts.

3. That the moon is made of green cheese.

This offer has been standing for four years. . . . with no takers. You also offer as fact that medical and dental associations endorse water fluoridation.

American Dental Assn. does endorse fluoridation without benefit. I might add that the American Medical Association, Congressmen A. L. Miller (himself an M.D.) and a host of other investigative findings. Congressman A. L. Miller (himself an M.D.) and a host of other investigative findings.

The American Medical Association, on the other hand, has not gone on record as having endorsed the use of water fluoridation. At least, not as of June 1958, the date of a letter received by me from the Director, Bureau of Investigation, American Medical Association.

As an extended treatment of this subject, may I suggest that the Journal of the American Medical Association, dated February, 1951, offers a treatise of the toxicity hazards of fluoride compounds.

I can sympathize with the natural reaction of an anxious (and confused) parent. Sadly enough, access to material covering the pros of fluoridation seem to be readily available. . . . while just the opposite is true of the opposing element. Noting the urgency and importance of searching out all available information, I've spent better than eight months compiling material. As a result of this effort I cannot, in all faith, subscribe to the efficacy of water fluoridation.

Why not accomplish the same thing without running any risk at all by doing what is unquestionably safe. . . . even though old-fashioned? Any dentist will advise you that the prime cause of tooth decay are sweets. Decrease the intake of cokes, cakes and candies by 50% and your child will be safer and, in addition, healthier.

It would be nice, I know, to be relieved of the responsibility of instructing our children in oral hygiene but don't forget how some of the so-called "wonder drugs" have turned out to be not so wonderful. So let's not be hasty. If it turns out that fluoridation could've been used safely, the only loss will suffer is the cost of false teeth. But, if we are wrong, it could well be the cost of a premature funeral. Sincerely,

D. G. SPARKS, 2320 Lynch, Granite City, Ill.

SUGGESTS FLUORIDE ADAPTATIONS BY DENTISTS The Forum, Granite City Press-Record, Granite City, Ill.

Dear Editor: These fond, dotting mamma who periodically yowl for fluoridated water, give me a big fat pain. Fluoridation isn't a will-o-wisp that can never be had. You can have it, simple as pie, the only catch, the bill lands in the family budget, instead of the taxpayers' laps, and incidentally if you're old enough to pay taxes, you're too old to benefit a great deal from fluoridation.

The Method: Stop yacking and dial your dentist. In just two or three office visits (you might have to miss club a time or two to keep your appointments) your children can be protected.

Advantage 1: Immediate protection, instead of protection in several months to a couple of years.

Advantage 2: Proper, complete, and controlled application instead of hit or miss.

Cost: For two or three kids, not nearly as much as a monthly car payment. Or for one child, less than cigarette money for a month of moderate smoking, or enough beer for a couple of booze parties, or the cost of keeping the family bus in gas.

Mighty simple, isn't it? But not very popular. In fact, helping one's self is so unpopular nowadays, you had better withhold our name and address and just sign as

ALDERMAN BASARICH LISTS OTHER PUBLIC JOBS "MOONLIGHTERS" The Forum,

Mr. C. E. Townsend:

I don't believe your editorial of Feb. 14, 1960 should go unanswered. I'm referring to the term "Moonlighter" which you are trying to pin on one of the 5th ward alderman. It is my opinion that you have joined hands with the Civic League in an attempt to assassinate the character of this alderman.

But for sixteen years now you have been unsuccessful, in this period of time the 5th ward has returned this man to represent them over and above your protests, and each time his plurality has grown larger.

You, Mr. Townsend should report or print all the news. It is the street you report it, but it is the same thing happens across the street you don't report it.

Why? So in my little disagreement of the term "moonlighter" you use I believe all the "moonlighters" should be reported in our fair city, not just the one you have singled out. So in accordance with your definition of "moonlighter" which you say means "a person who holds down two jobs, I would like to submit a list and believe you should write an editorial of these two job holders.

First, I would like the Cuyaga street "veteran" our honorable mayor. Undertaker and salaried as mayor. Second, we have our honorable city judge, salaried and has a law practice which is successful. Third, our city attorney, who has a law practice and draws a salary from the city. Fourth, our city court bailiff who draws a salary for twelve months and only works six weeks and also works at a local plant. Fifth, our assessor and our police magistrates, both salaried and working at local plants. Sixth, our city engineer, salaried and has a private firm also. Then, last but not least all our aldermen whom I'm sure to you fit the "moonlighter" term.

Now I know I've stepped on some toes in this I've submitted, but that is politics and we must bear with it.

By the way "Corky" you have a "moonlighter" on your staff. He tells me he also works for the Globe-Democrat in St. Louis. Maybe you should clean your own house first.

I'm also curious, why for over twenty years, you have been printing the Press-Record twice a week and the huge tile sign over your plant says "Daily Press-Record." Is this to again confuse people who arise in the Press-Record that maybe they will get five notices per week instead of two. You have so admit the sign is misleading.

Now that I've got this out of my chest I would like to let you on a secret. I enjoy the Press-Record, even though it is the only paper that gives you the least news for seven cents. The working man's price.

I only have one job, so it makes you and I "moonbeam," I guess.

S. A. BASARICH, Alderman 5th Ward.

FAVORS STATE SOVEREIGNTY In the beginning, the delegates at the convention were beset by many differences of opinion on how a "Federal Government" should be organized.

Most controversies were cleared in compromise. These men thought that in getting a Constitution creating a "Federal Government" they might be creating a monster which could one day become despotic and uncontrollable. Therefore we have the Bill of Rights, heading the Constitution. There are ten Articles there, and they are express prohibitions against the Congress of the new government.

But on one point, the men who got up the "Fed. Gov't." were in complete accord. And that was the States should remain sovereign. None of their sovereignty was delegated to this new government. The new Gov't was to be primarily a Gov't for convenience among the States.

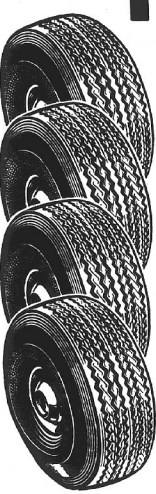

No passports between States—common post office—common currency, common defense. Nothing else. And the States were to remain separate countries, with total authority for their separate internal government.

Had these men at the convention foreseen the strangulation taxation their "Fed. Gov't." would later impose upon the people, I think they would have gone home and never finished their task. Had they foreseen that their "Fed. Gov't." would ever be interested in sending a rocket into outer space, they would have thrown their papers into the waste basket and left in disgust. Left the States un-united.

Elsewhere took an oath to support that Constitution. Well, like could beat me, hands down, this go! And I'm a dedicated Christian. We admire him as a man. But as a chief executive of this "Fed. Gov't." he is a sad excuse. The only man in our time who has done any outstanding. Let the States uphold the Fed. Constitution is Faubus. His fight was not so much against the other race of people, but against those who forgot about State sovereignty. I am said to be a cotton-pickin' Republican, but unless Faubus should be nominated for President, I am not going within a country mile of the polls come next Presidential election. Three "chairs" for Faubus. McCOMBS.

Area Birthrate Up Slightly

An increase in the Quad-City area's birthrate was recorded for January by Granite City Clerk A. L. Stevens, who compiles vital statistics for the entire area.

Stevens reported 116 births in the area last month as compared to 107 in December. However, in January 1959, the Quad-Cities birthrate was 125.

The January decrease of 36 showed a drop from the 41 recorded in December and the 45 reported in January 1958. There also were three stillbirths last month as compared to one in December and two in January 1959.

92 Traffic Accidents In GC Last Month

A belated report increased the number of traffic accidents in Granite City to 92 during January, just five short of the 97 predicted earlier in the month by Granite City police. In the accidents, 25 persons were hurt, two of them seriously.

While the daily average was just a tenth of a point off three-day average, there was one 24-hour period during the month in which not a single traffic mishap was reported. That was Thursday, Jan. 28. However, there were two days—Monday, Jan. 11, and Sunday, Jan. 17—when seven accidents occurred.

There was one day, Friday, Jan. 15, with six accidents; two days with five accidents; six days with four accidents; six days with three accidents; six days with two accidents; and seven days with a single traffic mishap.

Madison avenue was again the thoroughfare with the most accidents. Twenty-one were reported in the 31-day period. Other streets were 20th street and Nankin road, eight each; State street, six; and 15th street, Edgewood road and Niedringhaus avenue, three each.

Types of accidents were 43 two-car crashes, and the most common was a field machinist by Shell Oil Co.

Eleven hit-run accidents also were reported, 10 of them involving parked vehicles. In addition, five other parked cars were struck by motorists who stopped to report the accidents.

Six three-car crashes were reported, along with two auto-train accidents, a parked car struck by a train, seven auto-truck collisions, and four mishaps involving autos and pedestrians. Another auto, not involved in a collision, overturned, and a mishap was reported in which a passenger fell off a moving auto.

Granite City township's relief load dropped slightly during January, it was learned today from the office of Township Supervisor Leonard Gram.

Month Left To Register For Voting In April Primary

Quad-Cityans have slightly over a month in which they can register for voting in the April 12 primary election if they are not already registered.

Miss Eulalia Hottel, county clerk, reminded local residents today that the law no longer permits registration at the polls on election day. March 14 will be the last day to register for the primary at the office at the county courthouse in Edwardsville or at local registration centers.

The same date also is the deadline for reporting to the county clerk any change of address or a change of name by marriage or court order.

Those who will become 21 years of age on or before April 12 are eligible to vote if they register by the deadline.

"If you do not have a Voter's Certificate of Registration, which is a pink card, check with my office to see if you are properly registered," Miss Hottel said. "If you have lost your certificate, a duplicate will be issued by my office in Edwardsville upon request."

Mail Address Changes
"Change of address may be noted on the reverse side of the voter card, signed and mailed directly to the county clerk's office before March 14."

Voters may register Friday and Saturday from noon to 8 p.m. at the West Madison memorial center, West Third and Washington streets, and Saturday at the Granite City Firing Range building, 1900 Poplar street, from 1 to 8 p.m. and the Venice drug store, 1200 Logan street, from noon to 8 p.m.

The six regular centers are the city comptroller's office in the Madison city hall daily through March 14, 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.; Venice township relief office, 1502 Fifth street, daily except Saturdays through March 14, 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.; Connel residence, 1536 Third street, 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. through March 14; Mrs. Florine Musick residence, 600 Lincoln avenue, Venice, daily through March 14, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Next Week's Schedule
The Quad-City registration schedule for next week also will include the following:
Wednesday, Feb. 17—Nameoki fire station, 3902 Nameoki road, 1 to 8 p.m.; Friday, Feb. 19—Venice city hall, Broadway and Klea street, 7 p.m. to 9 p.m.; Saturday, Feb. 20—Venice Drug Store, 1200 Logan street, noon to 8 p.m.; Kirkpatrick homes recreation center, 1 to 8 p.m.; Wilson avenue grade school, 2400 Wilson avenue, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.; and Niedringhaus grade school, 29th and State streets, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. The county clerk's office is open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily.

Mounds Changes Owner, Gets New Name, Policy

Acquiring full control of the Mounds drive-in motion picture theater, Mid-America Theaters will change the Mounds name to the Falcon and institute a "family entertainment" policy there when it reopens about the first week in March, it was announced today.

R. L. Weseman, manager of Mid-America's Bel-Air drive-in theater, said the firm held only a minority interest in the Mounds for the past five or six years. After purchasing majority control this winter, it adopted its usual policy of offering major productions suitable for viewing by the entire family, he explained.

Don Lambird of Collinsville has been named as manager of the Falcon. It is the third Illinois drive-in theater of Mid-America, which also operates three in St. Louis county.

Long-range improvement plans at the Collinsville road theater include remodeling of the concession stand and projection booth, additions to playground equipment, enlargement of the screen tower and expansion of the concession stand. Painting also is planned.

Three-Vehicle Accident On Missouri Avenue

Three vehicles, including two trucks, were involved in an accident Monday in the 2400 block of Missouri avenue.

Police said Jennie J. Dechue, 40, of 2675 Highway 67, was driving a pickup truck north and first struck a parked car belonging to Garrett W. Lindewood, 64, of East St. Louis, before colliding with a southbound tractor-trailer truck operated by Thomas J. Bryarly, 36, of 2323 Adams street.

No injuries were listed, but police said there was damage to the left and right sides of the Dechue pickup truck, to the left side of Lindewood's car and no damage to the larger truck.

Stick to the facts always—act on principle, not on opinion.
